By PAUL FINCH
CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Pro-Communist terrorists made good Wednesday night on their threat to destroy the headquarters of the U.S. Military Mission in Caracas.

Eight gunmen overpowered a Venezuelan guard at the building entrance, forced 12 mission employees to take off their clothes, splashed gasoline on the building and set it afire.

The headquarters, an old Spanish colonial building in the fashionable country club section, was ruined. The mission's records were destroyed. None of the mission personnel was harmed.

Gunmen screamed "Yankee Imperialists" at the Americans and smeared walls with their identifying letters, FALN, the Armed Forces for National Liberation.

The FALN, trying to topple the government by force, is made up mostly of Communists but is led by former conservative army officers opposed to President Romulo Betancourt, the government says.

The FALN engaged in attacks and sabotage against government and business installations with daily regularity until they offered a truce last month in an attempt to win re-instatement of the Venezuelan Communist party. Betancourt.

More Hot and Dry Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More hot, mostly dry weather is forecast for Arkansas during the rest of this week.

Some thundershower activity is in the forecast, but the showers are expected to be light and isolated as they have been for the last two days.

No measurable rainfall was recorded at any reporting station Wednesday.

Temperatures soared to 96 at Brinkley and 95 at Keiser Wednesday. Overnight lows were in the upper 60s and low 70s.

High and low temperatures today and tonight were forecast in the same range as Wednesday.

Solon Fears All Joint Sessions

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—A House document noted today that at joint sessions of Congress "one lunatic with a hand grenade could plunge our nation into chaos."

That observation was made by Rep. Charles S. Joelson, D-N.J., a member of the Appropriations Committee, and was made public by the committee in its printed report accompanying the annual legislative money bill.

"I get very nervous" at such sessions, Joelson commented.

He referred to the customary presence at joint sessions of "the entire chain of succession" to the presidency.

At each annual joint session when the President delivers his State of the Union message, the House chamber audience includes the vice president, the speaker of the House, the president pro tempore of the Senate and most cabinet officers. They constitute the entire line of succession.

The vice president and the speaker sit directly behind the President, while the cabinet members sit nearby in front of him. They are in "pretty close proximity," commented Rep. Walt Horan, R-Wash.

"You may have noticed that seldom, if ever, do all of the cabinet members show up for joint sessions. At least one of them usually stays downtown. Perhaps they have thought about this possibility," said a House official who declined use of his name.

Joelson's fears were prompted, he said, by the fact that on March 1, 1964, a band of Puerto Rican fanatics seated in the House gallery fired a volley of bullets into the House chamber and wounded five members.

Since then, no one is allowed in the galleries without an admission card, usually furnished by members. Groups of tourists who pay a quarter each for an officially guided tour don't need admission cards, which are easy to obtain. All visitors are required to leave their cameras outside the gallery, but they are not searched.

No State Night Law Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — University of Arkansas President Dr. David W. Mullins said Wednesday the university would not be able to start a program of night law instruction at Little Rock because of budgetary problems.

Mullins' statement apparently killed prospects for establishment of a Little Rock branch of the university's Law School, at least for the current biennium.

The university, Mullins said, hoped to institute a program of continuing legal education, strengthen a legal research program in areas of importance to the Arkansas Bar Association and the state and begin a program of night instruction.

A request of the university for $127,200 to finance the night instruction was turned down by the 1963 legislature.

Says Private Schools Aid Taxpayer

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roman Catholic Church officials said today elementary and secondary Catholic schools are saving the nation's taxpayers more than $2.5 billion a year.

In Pennsylvania alone, said the National Catholic Welfare Conference, "Catholic parents... have saved their fellow taxpayers almost $2 billion between 1951 and 1961 by footing the bills for the education of half a million pupils in Catholic schools."

The NCWC speaks for the Roman Catholic hierarchy of the United States.

The figures were included in a bulky package of press releases, designed to explain the size, growth, complexity and problems of the Catholic schools.

The NCWC speaks for the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, although church leaders have been making strong efforts for some time to obtain such aid.

If the nation's 13,000-plus Catholic elementary and secondary schools closed down, the NCWC said, it "would require the construction of some 180,000 new classrooms; teacher salaries alone would add another $900 million of the tax burden annually."

The NCWC said the Catholics operated 10,631 elementary schools and 2,376 secondary schools in the 1960-61 school year.

The schools now enroll 5.5 million pupils, almost 15 per cent of all elementary and secondary school enrollments.

The report estimated that the 10,776 pupils in Catholic schools in Arkansas saved taxpayers $2,554,235. The cost per pupil was listed as $237.03.

Arkla Plans Big Compressor Plant

DANVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Plans of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. to build a $1.3 million automated natural gas compressor station eight miles southwest of Danville on Highway 80 were announced today by Yell County Rep. Lloyd George.

George said Arkla told him construction would start in mid-summer and the station would be in operation by Dec. 1, 1963.

The plant will be named for the late Judge J. E. Chambers, a long-time Yell County political leader and former chancellor in the 14th District.

Arkla President W. R. Stephens said in Little Rock that the station will be equipped with a single 4,000-horsepower engine which will be operated by remote control from Arkla headquarters in Shreveport.

Stephens said approval from various regulatory agencies had to be obtained before construction could begin. He said the facility would be one of the most modern compressor stations in the gas industry.

Officers Told to Take Initiative

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Capt. Melvin S. DeLong of the Arkansas State Police told the Arkansas Peace Officers' Association Wednesday if it doesn't take the initiative in decreasing highway fatalities, the federal government might intervene.

DeLong said he feared such intervention could lead to "federal control of all motor vehicle drivers along with federal enforcement on a state level."

Rep. K. A. Roberts, D-Alt., he said, introduced a bill in 1961 to set up a central driver record file in Washington.

DeLong recommended stronger state and local laws and enforcement.

Too Late for 2nd Graduation

BURRILLVILLE, R.I. (AP) — A Rhode Island mother saw one son graduated from the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., Wednesday but was too late to see a second son graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, commanding the First Army, made one of his planes available to Mrs. Margaret Shepard of Burrillville. But fog at Groton, Conn., delayed the plane's takeoff so that Mrs. Shepard missed the West Point commencement.

Mrs. Shepard and her newly commissioned son, Coast Guard Ens. Arthur B. Shepard arrived at West Point in time to congratulate new Army 2d Lt. John T. Shepard.

No agreement was reached at the initial two-hour meeting. Then, at the end of a three-hour session in late afternoon, the Republicans approved a statement saying they will "support further appropriate legislation required to help solve the problems of our nation in the field of civil rights."

Not all the 33 Republican senators attended the closed meetings — the exact number present could not be determined — and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, chairman of the conference, said there was some division on adopting the statement.

"I couldn't say it was unanimous," he said, "but I can truthfully say I am confident the ayes carried it."

Approved by voice vote, the policy statement is not binding on the GOP senators, he said.

Presidential Vote Bill Beaten

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The Louisiana Senate defeated 20-18 Wednesday a bill to set up presidential elector primaries in the state, but agreed to take another vote on the issue today.

The bill, if passed, would allow Louisiana's 10 Democratic electors to be unpledged.

Backers of the bill said Florida, Arkansas, and South Carolina would follow suit if the Louisiana measure is passed.

Alabama and Mississippi already have approved such legislation, furthering a southern Democratic revolt against the renomination of President Kennedy.

2nd Negro Is Enrolled at Mississippi

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Cleve McDowell, unaccompanied, went to his first class at the University of Mississippi today.

The 21-year-old Negro, second of his race ever knowingly admitted at Ole Miss, registered Wednesday without incident for the summer session in law school.

James H. Meredith, the other Negro, planned to register for the summer session—his final term—during the day. He delayed his registration to remain in Jackson for what he termed urgent personal business.

There were no incidents, and no federal marshals nearby, when he went to class.

McDowell arrived on the campus by car Wednesday with three marshals for his registration.

Police and soldiers were at alert as the smiling McDowell went through routine registration and entrance requirements.

All went smoothly after Gov. Ross R. Barnett told a television audience that McDowell was to be accepted only because Mississippi couldn't whip the U.S. Army.

"It would be unwise and futile," said the governor, who had unsuccessfully attempted to block Meredith's admission last fall.

"We have done everything in our power to prevent the enrollment of Cleve McDowell in the university law school," said Barnett.

"His entry is in violation of the laws of the state and is contrary to the wishes and order of the Board of Trustees, of the institutions of higher learning and the governor and the people."

"I have not heard one rude remark," McDowell, wearing a checked sports jacket and a new thin moustache, told a press conference after he was registered.

"I think this registration was carried out quite well," he added. "There is evidence someone did a lot of work."

Military Money Bill Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $1.6 million military authorization bill passed by the House Wednesday included $2,195,000 for projects at two Air Force bases in Arkansas.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, approves the outlay of $1,646,000 at the Little Rock Air Force Base for training, maintenance, supply, administration and community facilities.

It authorizes $549,000 to be spent at the Blytheville Air Force Base for operational, maintenance and administrative facilities and troop housing.

An unspecified amount for 33 family housing units at the Pine Bluff, Ark., Arsenal was also included.

Appropriations for the work will be considered later.

Killed in Wreck

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP) — Dan G. Carey, 62, of Wilmar, Ark., was killed east of Ocean Springs, Miss., Wednesday when his car was struck from the rear and burst into flames. State Patrolman F. L. Kennedy said the impact sent Carey's flaming car into a roadside gully, where it burned.

Prosecutor Lyman Mikel said bond was permitted because Rush intends to appeal his conviction to the Arkansas Supreme Court. He received a life sentence.

Mrs. Paul Rush, wife of the victim, posted the bond.

Young Rush, Raymond Wood, 21, of Roland, Okla., and Carolyn Brown, 20, of Fort Smith were charged with luring the 56-year-old Paul Rush into the darkened basement of a factory building where he was shot.

Wood was acquitted of first degree murder charges earlier this month. Miss Brown will be tried July 8.

Paul Rush was shot May 13, 1962. The state contends the three had conspired to kill him so Frederick Rush could inherit part of his estate.

Burned Plant Is Being Cleaned

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — Cleanup operations continued today at the Arkansas Rice Growers Cooperative, while officials tried to determine the cause of a million dollar fire that took the lives of four men Monday night.

Fire Chief Carl Bouchett said Wednesday the exact cause may never be determined.

Bouchett said he had not been able to talk to two workers injured in the fire to get their version of what happened. Both men were hospitalized.

A spark from a grinding machine or some other source or the right conditions of moisture, temperature and dust saturation could cause such an explosion as rocked the mill complex at the start of the fire, he said.

Plant officials hoped to have the mill back in operation today.

Hope Youth President of Boy's State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Thomas Franklin McLarty of Hope was elected governor of the 1963 American Legion Boys State at Camp Robinson Wednesday, defeating Larry Taunton of El Dorado.

Other officers are Newton Ker-shaw of Little Rock, lieutenant governor; Howard Sanderlin of Hamburg, secretary of state; Jim French of Hot Springs, attorney general, and Don Garrison of Little Rock, treasurer.

Don Longino of Magnolia was chosen land commissioner, Dennis Baw of North Little Rock auditor and Charles R. Stubblefield of Fayetteville, chief justice of the Supreme Court.

Elected associate justices of the Supreme Court were Larry Goldstein of Dermott, Al Weisenberger of Hope, John Tisdale of Little Rock, James Blackwell of Harrison and Butch Smotherman and Scott Baguley of Blytheville.

The new officers will assume mock control of the state government Friday.

In his talk the chief executive said the nation's education goal must be "a system in which every child, whether born a banker's son in a Long Island mansion, or a Negro sharecropper's son in an Alabama cotton field, has every opportunity for an education that his abilities and character deserve."

He said the nation must recognize that segregation in education means serious handicaps to a large portion of the population.

"And," he said, "I mean the de facto segregation of the North as well as the proclaimed segregation of the South."

In challenging the adequacy of the American educational system, Kennedy said that of all Americans 18 years of age or older, more than 23 million have had less than eight years of schooling while more than 8 million have never passed the fifth grade.

During his Pacific cruise with the Navy later in the day, sailors hoped to make amends for two successive missile failures in presidential demonstrations.

Texas Girl Is Jailed Here

A Texas woman was returned to Hempstead County jail from Tyler last night on a long standing charge of grand larceny by false pretense and grand larceny by bailor. Sheriff Jimmie Griffin said today.

She is listed as Martha Bogan, about 21, formerly of Longview. She was picked up by the FBI, turned over to Longview officers who in turn released her to Hempstead County.

The charges arose from $2,100 which she allegedly received from a Columbus, Ark. family.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — A classroom experiment has pupils rolling on the floor.

It began when wall-to-wall carpeting was installed recently in the kindergarten classroom of the Seymour Elementary School.

The school system is trying to determine whether carpeting is more durable and easier to maintain than other types of floor covering.

The five-year-olds apparently like the idea, according to Tamar Cohen, the kindergarten teacher.

Links Rights to Educational Backwardness

By FRANK CORMIER

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — President Kennedy, plugging hard today for his aid to education program, linked educational backwardness with the mounting civil rights problem.

Citing an array of statistics, Kennedy argued that the quality of American education is inadequate, that the educational system cannot cope with tomorrow's demands—and that Negroes suffer most from shortcomings in the system.

Farm Workers Are Building SS Credit

Almost 2 million hired farm workers are now building social security credit toward future benefits for themselves and their families. But, according to Otis A. Blackwood, social security district manager, many others who should be getting credit toward old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits, are failing to do so.

Mr. Blackwood said that a farm worker is covered by social security if he is paid $150 cash wages or more in a year by an employer or if he works for an employer on 20 or more days on a time, rather than a piece-work basis. In either of these two situations, the employer is required by law to report the worker's earnings and pay the social security taxes due.

These reports are due in January of each year. Mr. Blackwood said. But, right now, in the growing season, the farm employer needs to make sure that he is keeping a record of the people he hired so that he will be in a position to make his report when January rolls around.

No elaborate record keeping system is needed. Mr. Blackwood pointed out, but the farm employer should make sure he makes a record of the correct name and social security number of each employee, copying it carefully from the worker's social security card. Then he will need to enter the cash wage payments he makes to each, and the amount, if any, he deducts from these wages as the employee's share of the social security tax.

Farm employers who want more information about how to report their farm employees for social security should get in touch with the nearest social security office.

Wallace of Alabama vowed Wednesday night that despite a federal court order he would resist integration of the University of Alabama. He also appealed for law and order.

Just hours before Wallace's election campaign talk, U.S. District Judge Seymour H. Lynne issued an injunction barring the governor from physically interfering with the enrollment of three Negroes in the university system.

Three cities in the Carolinas said racial barriers at eating facilities would be lowered. They included Winston-Salem and Raleigh, N.C., and Spartanburg, S.C. At the same time, integration leaders said pressure would be applied for equal rights in other South Carolina cities.

In Los Angeles, white and Negro integrationists pledged Birmingham-type demonstrations if city government and business leaders failed today to take firm steps toward total integration.

court was adamant against letting Communists participate in presidential elections in November.

The attack Wednesday night was the first since the FALN's peace offer.

A U.S. spokesman said the mission had received numerous anonymous telephone threats that it was marked for destruction because it helps train the Venezuelan army forces.

A telephone call Wednesday night to the newspaper El Universal said the U.S. installation would be burned immediately after a period of mourning for Pope John XXIII ended at 6 p.m. The terrorists struck at 7 p.m.

One was dressed in the uniform of a Venezuelan army officer, six wore uniforms of Venezuelan soldiers and one was in civilian clothes.

They surprised four Venezuelan national guardsmen and lined them up inside with three U.S. Army officers, four U.S. Army sergeants, two Venezuelan civilian employees and the son of an Army officer.

They forced all to strip except Col. J. K. Chenault, 46, deputy chief of the mission, and his 15-year-old son.

Chenault and the other officers, identified as Maj. T. C. Blevins and Maj. B. Gardner, were not armed.

The terrorists, armed with pistols, fled with the U.S. uniforms, the Venezuelan guards' four sub-machine guns, an army pistol, and the men's rings and watches.

Accused Kidnapers to Be Returned

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Extradition from California of Richard Tyler Lane, 31, one of three persons charged in the kidnaping of a Little Rock hospital admissions clerk, was granted Wednesday.

Lane, his wife Cecile Mae, 26, and James Burton Ing, 42, all of Reno, Nev., are charged with kidnaping of William Bonds last month in what the FBI termed an attempt to get into the room of James Dean Walker, charged in the fatal shooting of a North Little Rock Policeman.

Ing is in the Nevada State Prison on conviction of burglary and assault. Lane's wife is still at large.

Pulaski County Prosecutor John T. Jernigan said he was informed Wednesday of the extradition approval and of Lane's filing of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus seeking release from a Sacramento, Calif., jail.

Jernigan said he would go to California for a hearing on the petition. Lane has denied taking any part in the kidnaping and beating of Bonds.

3 Americans Remain in Golf Match

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Three members of the United States Walker Cup team made their way into the fifth round of the British Amateur Golf championship today but an American dark horse was eliminated.

Dick Davis of Pasadena, Calif., the defending champion; Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., two-time U.S. Public Links champion; and Ed Updegraff, 41-year-old Tucson, Ariz., doctor, were successful in the first of today's two rounds which will cut the field to eight players.

The first American loser was George Chris Blocker of Jalisco, N.M., a former college star at Texas Tech who now is stationed at an American military base in Italy. He was beaten on the last hole by Michael Lunt, British Walker Cup star, 1 up.

Hugh O'Donnell, a Hollywood, Calif., restaurant man, lost as expected to Scotland's Ronnie Shade, 2 and 1.

Dr. Ron Luceti of San Francisco, a 26-year-old dentist in the U.S. Army in Germany, also reached the fifth round, beating Brian Anderson of Scotland, 3 and 2. Luceti is the only American left in the lower half of the draw.

Davis, off to a rather shaky start, won out over John Wilson of Scotland with a birdie 3 on the 19th hole after winning the 18th to send the match into overtime.

Sikes disposed of Dr. Hugh MacAnespie of Scotland, 4 and 3, and Updegraff turned back Geoffrey Dixon of Scotland, 2 and 1.

Davis, Sikes and Updegraff, last survivors of the U.S. Walker Cup team that was successful in its duel with England's top amateurs but has fared badly on the 6,996-yard St. Andrews Old Course this week, all are in the upper half of the draw. They play their fifth of the draw.

Paragould to Vote on Bonds

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—Mayor J. T. Brown says he will call an election within 15 days on a petition seeking a public vote on increased water and sewer rates. The increase was authorized by the city council May 20 when it approved issuance of $1.5 million in revenue bonds to finance improvements.

The petition asking an election on the proposal was filed by residents Wednesday. The Water Works Board said the referendum may delay the city's move to seek $800,000 in federal matching funds for the work.

Union Co. Plant Lay Off Workers

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Chase-Grocor Rubber Co., laid off an unannounced number of men Wednesday night because of what company President Robert Murphy termed "circumstances beyond the company's control."

It was the second layoff at the plant since April 1.

Union County voters approved a 3.25 mill tax levy on a $200,000 bond issue in 1961 to finance construction of the plant. In 1962 an additional levy of 1.17 mills was approved to finance $1825,000 in equipment.

Murphy said it was hoped normal production could be resumed soon.

Brando Gives $5,000 to Negro Leader

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What's all this about Marlon Brando winding up his acting career?

Such reports filtered back from his recent travels for "The Ugly American," and I aimed to find out if they had been exploitation-tour dialogue or the real thing.

So I tramped out to Universal, where Brando is now playing "King of the Mountain."

"Yes, I have six more pictures to do and then it's over, finished, that's all," he said.

How come? Doesn't he get satisfaction from acting any more?

"Yes, to a certain extent," he replied. "But the point is that other things give me more satisfaction and hold my interest more."

And I must say that this is the first picture I have ever done in which I actually look forward to coming to work."

What would Brando be doing if he didn't act?

"Directing interests me a great deal. Also, I scribble. My briefcases are bulging, and I should do something with what's inside."

But he indicated that his burning interest lay not in the movie business but in the world around him.

"For instance, the whole area of civil rights," he said.

Brando attended the recent reception for Negro leader Martin Luther King at Burt Lancaster's house. He was so taken with King's speech that he contributed $5,000 to the cause and volun-

Elected Leader

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Jane Snipes of Crawfordville has been elected president of the Arkansas Children of the Confederacy. Miss Snipes was elected at the organization's state convention, which ended at El Dorado Saturday. Others elected included Amanda Ashford, Texarkana; Kay Sims, El Dorado and Kenny Spellman, Texarkana, vice presidents; Olivia Woodruff, Crawfordville, recording secretary; and Danny Griffin, Crawfordville, corresponding secretary. Crawfordville was named as the site for the 1964 convention.

He said the issue "of sanctioning authority" apparently is the major point of contention between the two groups and his ruling should permit a resumption of normal activities by both.

Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the ECAC, was not available for comment, aides saying he was not in his office today.

Group to Give Money to India

PARIS (AP) — The Consortium for Aid to India has decided to put credits of a minimum of $914,800,000 at India's disposition for 1963-64, the third year of its five-year development plan.

Another meeting of the Consortium will be held in Washington in July to discuss an increase in the sum. The United States, which will cover $75 million of the total decided on Wednesday, expressed willingness to increase this amount to $450 million if other nations will increase their contributions.

Members of the consortium are Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Holland, the United States, the Institute for International Assistance and the World Bank.

European Income Boom Reported

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The Executive Commission of the European Common Market has reported a boom in the real incomes of families in its six-nation membership.

In its sixth annual report, the commission said Wednesday the real income of families during the 1958-1962 period has risen by 25 per cent in West Germany and Italy.

In the Netherlands and France, real income has increased by 15 per cent and in Belgium and Luxembourg by 10 per cent, the commission said. Total value of internal trade in 1962 was $13.5 billion—double that of 1958.

Chicken and Beef Market Features

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef and chicken bargains make it easy to celebrate June as national barbecue month.

Steaks, hamburger, small roasts, kebab cuts and ribs are all attractively priced candidates this weekend.

One national chain features rib steaks at 69 cents a pound and California roasts are offered by another chain at 49 cents.

Chicken fryers, meanwhile, were pegged at 29 cents a pound in the New York outlets of one chain. These prices are expected to continue low.

Red meat prices—recently at their lowest levels in five years—may start rising before too long, however.

This turnabout has shown up in West Coast markets in the form of pork boosts of 3 to 5 cents a pound for loins and 2 to 3 cents for spareribs.

Retail effects haven't shown up everywhere yet, however, and many pork bargains will still be found this weekend.

Beef prices may undergo sort of a sympathetic vibration later, rising once the competitive pressure of cheap pork is eased.

Vegetable offerings this weekend include new potatoes, bell peppers, spinach, squash, tomatoes, cabbage, celery, sweetcorn and carrots.

Fruit counters are brightening with the appearance of blueberries, avocados and cantaloupes to join the starts of recent weeks: watermelon, strawberries and pineapple. Peaches are also showing up in volume and West Coast markets feature plums, apricots, grapes and cherries.

Sugar prices have generally leveled off or declined as wholesale prices edge downward.

Next Week Likely to Be Dramatic

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Next week—starting Monday—will be memorable in the history of civil rights in the United States. It could turn into a violent and dramatic week.

Alabama's Gov. George C. Wallace seems to think he can keep his state the way it is indefinitely: the only Southern state which doesn't have at least one Negro in its public schools.

On Monday he will try to make good, or so he says, on his promise to keep Negroes out of the University of Alabama. If he tries, he will be defying a federal court order to admit the Negroes.

The Kennedy administration has asked a federal district judge in Birmingham to issue an injunction against any interference by Wallace. The judge will give his decision on that Wednesday.

If Wallace's defiance causes trouble—he says he doesn't want any although the best way to avoid it is to comply with the court order—President Kennedy has troops in Alabama.

They can be used to back up the court order and suppress violence.

In taking this course Wallace has chosen to ignore the history of Mississippi's Gov. Ross Barnett who last year attempted to keep a Negro, James H. Meredith, out of the University of Mississippi in defiance of a court order.

Kennedy swept him aside with troops and marshals but not until there was a riot and two men were killed.

On Monday—or, if not Monday, then some day next week—Kennedy will send Congress civil rights bills upon which the Justice Department, headed by his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, has worked for days.

Since they couldn't be passed this week, even if delivered to Congress this week, they wouldn't have any effect on Wallace, psychological or otherwise. Next week is a different story.

If violence breaks out in Alabama as a result of Wallace's defiance, the impact and perhaps the persuasiveness of the bills if delivered then would be far greater, even on Southern Democrats.

Nevertheless, they won't get through Congress without a fight by the Southerners who can be expected to filibuster against them, although perhaps not as wholeheartedly as in years past.

Martin, Studio in Agreement

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dean Martin and 20th Century-Fox announced jointly Tuesday that litigation between them has been dismissed.

The studio sued Martin a year ago when he refused to work in the movie "Something's Got to Give" after the late Marilyn Monroe was dismissed.

The studio, charging breach of contract, asked $3,339,000 of Martin. He countered by suing the studio for $6,850,000.

DOROTHY DIX

SHE'S LEARNING THE HARD WAY

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I work six days a week in the housekeeping department of a big hotel. It's a job with plenty of crises to challenge my ingenuity, dealing as I must with people. Swell training for a wife and mother, you'd say.

Yes and no. It's taught me organization of work at home and made it easier to cope with my two children because many hotel patrons behave like children. But I still am baffled when it comes to my husband. In 1961, after six happy years of marriage, he left me for another woman. I was heartbroken, outraged and disappointed.

Being proud, I determined to divorce and earn enough to care for the kids and me. I filed suit, took this job and got an aunt to come look after the children.

They missed their father and that made it hard but I continued to press for a speedy divorce. Then, one day my husband walked in, begging forgiveness. I gave him another chance for the children do need him.

Now he's cheating again, this time with a friend and neighbor. I am at my wit's end. Once more he begs forgiveness. He's 28, I'm 23. We've been married eight years. What shall I do? —Frantic

Dear Frantic: Ask yourself (and be honest about it): if there is anything missing in your marital relationship which your husband may be seeking elsewhere? Then, for the children's sake and the preservation of the marriage, make a supreme effort to supply that need.

Any marriage between a 15-year-old and a 20-year-old starts off with overwhelming handicaps. In many cases the handicaps can be overcome provided both husband and wife continue their growth and development in the same general direction. The fact that your marriage has survived eight years augurs well. But nowhere in your letter do you mention the word "love."

Since your husband sought and obtained forgiveness once and is trying to do so again, despite his actions, the spark is evidently still there and could be fanned into a flame once more provided you both were determined to do so. Talk this over with your husband and for more ideas on the subject, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Successful Marriage."

Dear Helen: My boy friend went overseas eight months ago. The physical attraction between us is so great that I was relieved as well as sorry when he joined the services. We were both putting on the brakes to keep our emotions from getting out of hand.

I have no reason to believe our love isn't real—we talk of getting married when he returns, but I wonder if we're not mistaking physical attraction for love. He is 18 and I am 16. I've not dated since he left but am not the least bit sorry to miss the fun. You handle many problems with tact and give good, sound advice. I would be very grateful if you could help clarify my thinking.

—Faithful reader

Dear Faithful: Go slow. All too often physical attraction is mistaken for love. That's why so many teen marriages crack up. Do you and your boy friend share the same tastes? Are his ideals yours? Has he chosen a profession? If so, how well is he equipped for it? How well are you prepared for marriage? At 16 you are entirely too young to go into this self-imposed retirement. You need a basis of comparison and the experience which only comes with living. Have fun. Date other boys. Only then can you tell whether this particular one is Mr. Right for you.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Yankees Gain Loop Lead But Lose Mantle

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle's cast stretches from his toes to his knee. And quite possibly to the heart of the New York Yankees.

The blond better, four-time home run champion and three-time Most Valuable Player, suffered a broken bone in his left foot Wednesday night as the Yankees whipped Baltimore 4-3 and regained the American League lead by .004 points over the Orioles.

Doctors estimate the injury—a fracture of the third metacarpal bone, a small bone running across the top of the foot—may keep the Yankee slugger out of the world champions' lineup for as long as six weeks.

And while no player on the Yankees is indispensable, there is little doubt that the men in pinstripes are a radically changed club with Mantle on crutches. That's been shown in the past when the $100,000-a-year center fielder has been sidelined.

The injury came as Mantle ran into the center-field fence—there is no warning track at Memorial Stadium—trying to catch a homer hit by the Orioles' Brooks Robinson. His spikes became entangled in the wire fence as he backed up for the ball and his left foot twisted as he fell.

While the Yankees were losing Mantle and beating Baltimore, the Chicago White Sox lost an opportunity to take over first place. Needing a doubleheader sweep over the Los Angeles Angels the White Sox won the opener 3-0 but lost the nightcap 8-2.

Elsewhere, Minnesota continued to move up by downing Kansas City 4-0 and Detroit edged Cleveland 5-4. The Boston-Washington game was rained out.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs beat first-place San Francisco twice 9-5 and 5-4. Philadelphia blanked St. Louis 6-0, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Houston 5-1. Milwaukee outlasted the New York Mets 11-9 in 10 innings and Pittsburgh edged Cincinnati twice, 5-4 and 4-3.

The Yanks' victory came when Roger Maris scored in the eighth inning after Tom Tresh batted into Oriole catcher Dick Brown, jarring the ball loose as Brown cocked his arm to throw to first on a doubleplay attempt.

The umpires disallowed the Orioles' contention that Tresh had deliberately bumped Brown. The win went to Whitey Ford, 7-3.

The White Sox won the opener on a bases-empty homer by Dave Nicholson and a two-run shot by Jim Landis. John Buzhardt scattered nine hits for his sixth victory against two losses.

The Angels won the nightcap with a seven-run sixth inning upsurge against Ray Herbert, 5-3. Albie Pearson, who stroked four hits, broke a 2-2 tie in the rally.

Fired-Up Cubs Blast Giants in Twin Bill

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago Cubs are acting just like they're serious about this game of baseball. Which, of course, just couldn't be.

Everyone knows the Cubs are a team you point at and giggle. Imagine, a nine-man coaching staff and, of all things, an athletic director. Sure, a million laughs.

Only, who's giggling? Certainly not the San Francisco Giants. Nor the rest of the National League. Nor, come to think about it, anyone but dyed-in-the-wool Cub fans.

The fired-up Cubs swept a doubleheader from the Giants 9-5 and 5-4 Wednesday and vaulted into a tie with St. Louis for second place in the National League, just one game back of the leading Giants.

Rookie Ray Culp threw a three-hitter in leading Philadelphia to a 6-0 edge over the Cardinals; Smokey Burgess drove in the winning run in each game as Pittsburgh swept Cincinnati, 5-4 and 4-3; Milwaukee outlasted New York 11-9 in 10 innings and Los Angeles beat Houston 5-1 behind Sandy Koufax.

In the American League, Mickey Mantle broke a bone in his left foot in the New York Yankees' 4-3 victory over Baltimore and will be in a cast for two or three weeks. The victory moved New York into first place. Chicago and Los Angeles split, the White Sox winning the first 3-0, the Angels the second 8-2. Minnesota blanked Kansas City 4-0, Detroit edged Chicago 5-4 and the Boston at Washington game was rained out.

The Cubs' sweep of San Francisco made it 10 victories in their last 12 games and six of nine with the league leaders.

The Cubs lashed five home runs in the first game, but had to have a little luck to salvage the nightcap. Lou Brock scampered in from third with the tie-breaking run when the Giants' Chuck Hiller dropped a pop fly in short right field in the seventh.

Ernie Banks hit two homers in the first game, and Billy Williams, Ken Hubbs and Brock one each. For the Giants, Harvey Kuenn and Willie Mays had first-game homers, while Willie McCovey and Orlando Cepeda connected in the nightcap.

Culp, a $100,000 bonus right-hander for the Phils, had allowed only a single by Ken Boyer through 8 2/3 innings against the Cardinals. Boyer then collected his second single and George Altman singled before the 22-year-old rookie struck out Julian Javier to end the game. The loss dropped the Cards to a share of second one game off the pace.

The Pirates' Burgess broke a 4-4 tie with a pinch-hit single in the eighth inning of the first game and doubled in what proved to be the winner in the nightcap against the Reds.

The Dodgers' Koufax scattered eight hits and stroked a key single in a decisive three-run sixth inning against Houston. The victory, Koufax' eighth against three losses, pulled the Dodgers to within 1½ games of the Giants.

Bubba Morton drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single in the 10th inning for the Braves' winning margin against the Mets. Milwaukee had blown a 9-1 lead behind Warren Spahn with the Mets scoring seven unearned runs in the sixth and tying it in the eighth.

Travs in 4th Straight Over Rochester

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas gained its fourth straight victory over Rochester 6-1 Wednesday night in an International League baseball game.

Pitcher Gary Kroll gained his sixth victory against one loss. In other IL games Atlanta downed Syracuse 3-2, Buffalo split a twin bill with Indianapolis 5-0 and 1-9, Columbus nicked Richmond 2-0 and Jacksonville edged Toronto 7-6.

The Travelers end a 14-game home stand tonight. If they beat Rochester again, they will have an 8-6 record for the Little Rock stint.

Rochester got its only score in the first inning when Kroll balked. Ossi Virgil to second and Luke Easter scored him with a single.

Lee Ella got an infield hit in the second inning, Kroll doubled and Bobby Malkmus slammed a single to left center to give the Travelers two runs.

Arkansas added two more in the fifth on a double by Wayne Graham, single by Allen and triple by John Herrstein. In the seventh Graham singled and Cal Emery and Herrstein both doubled to bring in the Travelers' final runs.

Thousands See Body of the Pope

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The everyday people so dear to Pope John XXIII came by the tens of thousands today to see their beloved pontiff in death.

The mourners filed between wooden barriers through St. Peter's Square—where many times they had come to see the smiling Pope at his window—and entered the cool basilica to move past his lifeless figure.

Nearly 100 persons waited through the night in the square. By 8:07 a.m., when the central doors of the basilica opened, a line of 30 abreast stretched across the immense square and far down the Via Della Conciliazione.

Pope John lay in red pontifical robes on a catafalque covered in red damask and framed by 16 candles. His face was serene, showing no mark of the four days of suffering that ended with his death Monday night.

On his head was a golden bishop's miter, for the Pope is both bishop of Rome and supreme pontiff of the world's half billion Catholics. The miter reminded Romans that they had lost their bishop in losing their Pope.

The body will lie in state for public viewing until Thursday night. After a private burial service Thursday evening, it will be placed in a crypt in a niche in front of the tomb of Pope Pius XI, in the right lateral nave of the grotto under the main floor of the basilica.

There was no indication, however, that this would be the final resting place.

The official nine-day mourning period will begin Friday. It may be interrupted for Sunday and for the feast of Corpus Christi on June 13. The last three days will be marked by solemn Mass celebrated by cardinals. Envoys from many nations are expected to attend the final funeral services.

Informal sources in Washington said President Kennedy has designated Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson to represent him.

As the faithful of Rome filed past the catafalque, the 50 or more members of the College of Cardinals in foreign lands set out for the Vatican to attend the funeral rites and to begin meeting between June 18 and June 21 to elect Pope John's successor.

L'Osservatore Romano, presumably acting on previous instructions from Pope John began publishing previously unreleased statements and writings of the dead pontiff.

Of the Ecumenical Council he said, "Will He (God) allow me to see it through? Be he blessed. Will he not? Then from heaven where I hope—am certain—that divine mercy will take me, I shall see its happy ending."

Medical Center Graduation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—University of Arkansas President David Mullins will present diplomas to 134 graduates of the University Medical Center Sunday.

Seventy-seven of the seniors will receive doctor of medicine degrees. Twenty-seven are pharmacy school graduates, and nine will receive degrees in medical technology.

Dr. Leroy E. Burney, former surgeon general of the U.S. and currently vice president of health sciences of Temple University will make the commencement address.

Birmingham Eye of Race Hurricane

EDITOR'S NOTE — Associated Press writer Relman Morin, Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter who covered racial turbulence in Birmingham last month, returns to assess the Deep South city in the wake of a biracial truce which stopped street marches by Negroes.

By RELMAN MORIN

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Birmingham is in the eye of the hurricane now.

The city is quiet. But the elemental forces of racial strife still swirl around it.

A biracial agreement, worked out between white businessmen and Negro leaders, ended the demonstrations in May. It provided, among other things, for the desegregation of downtown store facilities within 90 days.

Today, the lunch counters in some stores are closed.

On the one hand—

The Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker, chief strategist for the nonviolent campaign of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said the issue of dismissing charges against Negroes arrested last month, must be settled.

"If not," he said, "we'll start demonstrating again. We've got 5,000 who would go to jail."

About 2,400 Negroes were jailed between April 3 and May 7. And on the other—

Attempts are under way to organize the white populace of Birmingham. An estimated 800 persons attended a meeting last Friday night and there was another Saturday, even bigger said a witness.

A newly formed organization claims to have obtained 20,000 signatures on a petition calling for an election to restore the commission form of government in the city.

The former administration was voted out of office last November. One of its top officials was T. Eugene (Bull) Connor, hard-bitten segregationist. The election was contested and the new administration was seated only recently after a ruling by the State Supreme Court.

The new mayor, Albert Boutwell, and his nine-member council have met four times. Two members said the racial problem has not yet been discussed but that they were sure it would be taken up.

The issue of desegregating the schools has complicated the problem.

Desegregating the schools would be, potentially, a much more explosive action than desegregating the public facilities in some stores.

It sounds almost incredible, but some people will drive miles to look at scenery, and then damage it with picnic refuse.

Americans Hepped Over Bull Fighting

AP SPORTLIGHT

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mounting American enthusiasm for bullfighting may make the bullring at Tijuana, on the California-Mexico border, one of the most important in the world, predicts famed matador Carlos Arruza.

Already, he says, it is the most profitable in Mexico and draws the world's top matadors.

The huge Plaza Mexico in Mexico City, largest in the world with a seating capacity of around 75,000, takes in about $40,000 on an average Sunday during the peak of the season.

But at Tijuana the average runs more than double that figure, says Arruza. One reason, of course, is that Tijuana can charge more than the government-controlled ceiling in Mexico City.

EUREKA SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Eureka Springs residents voted 433-297 Tuesday in favor of a proposed $85,000 bond issue to finance water and sewer improvements.

The proposal had been defeated in two previous elections.

And a major reason Tijuana can charge more is that 80 per cent of the average turnout comes from the United States, mainly nearby California, he says.

He said he has found interest growing in the United States in bullfighting, which is banned north of the border.

Arruza calls it an art and not a sport.

He has just taken on a new project—a job with the National Tourist Bureau headed by former President Miguel Aleman. Arruza is a sort of special goodwill ambassador, and will travel extensively.

Dick Ostfeld walked the length of the judge's bench—and walked back again, clear to the rail of the jury box. Then he went over to stand directly before Smokey.

"Will you tell the court your name, please?"

"Smokey," he answered quietly. "Merkel — Keyes — Howdershell, M.D."

"Your age, Dr. Howdershell?"

"I am 40 years old."

Having asked these obvious things, Ostfeld then said that he presumed Dr. Howdershell had full knowledge of the case in hand.

"Smokey was still being patient and courteous. He said that he had been at High View Hospital on Saturday morning — and I do not deny that a man was killed. He looked down at his hands. 'In the past months,' he said, looking up at David Ostfeld, 'I have paid that same man $2,800 in blackmail.'

Instantly the room was in an uproar. Lovey talked to me, Aunt Bean talked to herself — all around me, people talked to each other. The judge was gaveling for order. The man beside me made three marks in his little leather notebook, and I was worried lest I begin to hiccup.

"Finally the judge achieved silence, and said something stern about clearing the courtroom of visitors if any further disturbance occurred."

"The judge was making notes. 'Do you want to tell us about this matter, doctor?' he asked kindly. 'When this man came to you, and the circumstances attendant upon this act?'"

"It was the morning of October seventh," he began.

"Where?" said the judge.

"In the main operating room of High View Hospital. It was early in the morning — very early. He — this man — must have come up the back stairs after the door was unlocked."

"Smokey sat a minute in thought. 'That morning,' he said slowly, 'I had arrived early — about my usual time on an operating day. The nurse comes on duty at seven, and she was not yet there when I went up. I unlocked the doors, and went through into the scrub room. When I came back to o.r., this man was there. 'Just one man?'"

"Yes, sir. His name is Ward

Weber, but he is commonly called Buck. He is — he was — a burly sort of man, with a swaggering, tough manner."

"You knew him?"

"No, I did not know him. I had seen him before, but he was not a friend, or acquaintance, even."

"Did he live in Elmbank, or nearby?"

"I don't know. The Webers could have come here only to work. But I don't think they have done that for long, sir."

David Ostfeld said something about opinion.

"The judge was reading the coroner's report — looking for some particular item. He put it down, and turned again to Smokey. The doctor now sat facing the courtroom; he would turn his head to the right when the judge spoke, and then turn it to the left to answer, addressing the jury. I thought how quickly he had adjusted to the situation."

"You are a strong, athletic man, Dr. Howdershell?" asked the judge.

Smokey smiled a little. "I wouldn't say athletic, sir. I keep fit, but — yes — I would say that I was strong. A surgeon has to be, you know."

The judge shrugged and glanced at David Ostfeld.

"It isn't a trial, you know," said the man next to me.

"I keep forgetting that," I murmured.

He nodded.

No one would ever ask David Ostfeld if he was strong. He was a big man, in all ways, tall, broad-shouldered. He moved and spoke with the authority of his great strength.

Now he leaned his bulk against the rail of the witness stand, and asked Smokey why Weber had been blackmailing him.

"What was his motive, doctor? Why and how could he blackmail you? Was he in possession of some knowledge that was dangerous to you?"

The courtroom, as one body, leaned forward to hear Smokey's reply.

"He had no knowledge that was physically dangerous to me, sir," he said quietly. "But — to my peace of mind — that of my family — yes, he presented a threat, sir."

Ostfeld whirled. "Is that also why you killed this man? Because you — and your children — were endangered by the knowledge which Weber possessed?"

Smokey leaned forward as if to answer. But Dick Hinton was on his feet saying that he objected.

"Counselor," said David Ostfeld, patiently, "your client himself mentioned the fact of blackmail."

Apparently Wyatt Is Out at Tennessee

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The University of Tennessee reportedly has decided to grant head football coach Bowden Wyatt a year's leave of absence.

The Knoxville Journal said today it has learned that the leave, with full pay, will be announced at a meeting of the board of trustees June 20, along with the naming of an interim head coach.

Wyatt is reported to be a patient in a Radford, Va., hospital.

Tennessee President Andrew D. Holt was not available for comment on the story. He has refused to confirm or deny previous reports that Wyatt faced dismissal because of his behavior at a coaches meeting.

"Bowden Wyatt is ill, a mighty sick man, and the university's chief concern at this time is his recovery," wrote Journal sports editor Ed Harris.

Such a leave would not be without precedent at U-T. Last year new head basketball Coach Ray Mears was granted a leave of several months while a patient at the same hospital.

Newspapers in Knoxville and Nashville said last week Wyatt probably would be fired for his "bellicose" actions at the coaches meeting where he reportedly struck a coach and tossed a sports writer into a swimming pool.

Wyatt, head coach since 1955 following coaching stints at Wyoming and Arkansas, also has been acting athletic director since the death of Gen. Robert S. Neyland.

But the U-T athletic board made it clear recently that it was seeking another man as permanent athletic director.

Trying to Cut Welfare Payments

By MICHAEL KEATING

ALBANY N.Y. (AP) — An obscure office in the New York State Department of Social Welfare is providing guidance to other states in a national effort to cut $252 million a year from the cost of public welfare.

The office is the Bureau of Registry and Location. Its task is to find the whereabouts of fathers and mothers who desert their families leaving them to taxpayers to support.

If located in another state the parents can be prosecuted under "the runaway pappy act."

The bureau—in full-time operation slightly less than a year—has a 31 per cent record of achievement. A new federal regulation requires all states to set up something similar.

The federal government estimates that desertion is responsible for 18 per cent of cases receiving aid-to-dependent children. That comes to the $252 million a year figure.

New York and other states have laws requiring parents to support their children. But first the parents must be found.

The key to the New York operation is that it has access to state records that normally are confidential — tax reports, correction department files and unemployment insurance records.

If a deserter is employed in the state the bureau can obtain the name and address of the man and his employer. If the man is collecting unemployment insurance the bureau can learn where the checks are being picked up.

If the man is in jail in a mental institution or has visited a friend in jail correction department records will show this.

When the local welfare official knows where his quarry is he begins legal proceedings to make him assume his responsibilities. Under the runaway pappy act—a uniform law passed by all the states and territories—a support proceeding begun in one state can be tried in another eliminating the need of returning a man home for trial.

The effectiveness of the bureau is curtailed when a deserter leaves the state and has no contact with any state agency. No adequate machinery exists for location of these individuals. Rosenblatt says. He hopes that an effective interstate information exchange can begin when all states establish a central registry of deserting heads of households.

Petrified tree trunks are so common in the vicinity of Piggott that many have been used in community cemeteries as tombstones.

Jobless to Get More Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Persons drawing maximum or minimum unemployment compensation benefits in Arkansas will get a raise of $5 a week July 1.

This was announced today by Gov. Orval E. Faubus who said the maximum benefit will go to $35 a week because the average weekly wage of all covered workers has been found to be $68.93.

The unemployment benefit formula was adjusted by the 1961 Legislature to set the maximum payment at one-half the average weekly wage. The same law raised the minimum weekly benefit from $10 to $15.

The benefit rates will be adjusted each July 1 when a new average wage formula is computed. The formula is figured from employment and wage data reported to the Employment Security Division by employers.

Highlights in Today's History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1939, the first reigning monarchs of the British Empire to visit the United States, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, arrived by way of Niagara Falls, N. Y. They were greeted by Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

On this date: In 1755, Gen. Braddock set out on his ill-fated expedition to Ft. Duquesne. It was part of the British effort to destroy French power in America.

In 1776, the first resolution for American independence was introduced in the Second Continental Congress by Richard Henry Lee. It was a forerunner of the Declaration of Independence.

In 1864, President Lincoln was renominated for a second term at his party's convention in Baltimore.

In 1942, the Battle of Midway in the Pacific ended in a U.S. victory.

In 1944, the Allies had secured a foothold on the beaches of Normandy on the second day of their invasion of the Continent.

Ten years ago: The Commerce Department set up a system for denying fueling facilities in the United States or its territories to foreign ships and planes carrying goods to Red China.

Five years ago: British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan arrived in Washington for a five-day visit in the United States.

One year ago: President Kennedy told a news conference that he would ask the next Congress for personal and income tax reductions to go into effect in January 1963.

Graduation Means Much to Many

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the season of graduation and senior proms, a time in which children become adults overnight and their parents age noticeably.

And school officials? A Maryland principal, Arnold N. Fleagle of Walkersville High, says June, a very critical month, is "one of those times when principals hold their breath and talk to kids and parents. Twelve years of planning and hope can go down the drain in one night."

Most school officials agree that unchaperoned all-night parties and wild joy rides ending in disastrous crashes are things of the past. A survey by The Associated Press indicates that the schools, with the help of parents, think they have the situation pretty well in hand.

Typical of many celebrations are the Omaha senior banquets or proms which break up late enough that authorities feel students have run out of steam. Assistant Superintendent Owen Knutzen says all-night parties are banned and "We'd jump all over parents if we knew about any."

But other parents and school officials have backed off the problem of all-night parties to take a long, thoughtful look and decide, if you can't lick 'em, join 'em. This means that adults thoroughly chaperone the affairs, enforce rules of conduct such as no re-admittance once the youngsters leave—to eliminate occasional forays into parked cars—and no drinking.

Maryland's deputy state superintendent of schools, Dr. David W. Zimmerman says all-night drinking parties used to cause trouble. Now numerous all-night non-drinking parties held under parental supervision have resulted in improved school-community relations.

Some seniors though, insist there are seeds of unchaperoned parties, including jaunts to Washington for drinking and to Baltimore for better restaurants.

The parents' promenade in Barberton, Ohio, is typical of parent-sponsored affairs designed to lure youngsters away from hazardous celebrations.

After the prom given by the juniors for the seniors ends at 11:30 p.m., the seniors are escorted to another building. There civic leaders and school officials serve the kids dinner prepared by the parents. The young people dance some more, watch a show produced by the parents. Finally breakfast is served and the seniors go to church around 6:30 a.m.

In Dallas, where traditionally the proms are formal school dances held at a downtown hotel, parents arrange an all-night dancing party at a country club with breakfast later. Many of the young celebrants, however, get so tired by 4:30 a.m., they're taken home

Thinks Narcotic Law Too Strict

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pulaski Circuit Judge William J. Kirby, declaring that penalty provisions of the Arkansas narcotics law are too strict, refused Tuesday to convict a man Tuesday on a charge of possessing marijuana.

Kirby reduced the charge against John Henry Ebberts, 31, of Elmo, Calif., to "attempting to commit a felony," which is a misdemeanor. The judge fined Ebberts $50 and sentenced him to 30 days on the county penal farm.

The minimum sentence on a possessing charge under the narcotics law, Act 244 of 1937, is two years in prison. The law was amended in 1961 to keep judges from suspending the sentence.

"The law is out of all proportion to the offense," Kirby said. Ebberts said Ebberts was arrested in a vacant house May 16. He was smoking marijuana and playing a trumpet, they said, and a sack of marijuana was found in his trumpet case.

Pastime Is Watching Monsters

By BOB WATTS

LONDON (AP)—Richard Need is a man with an unusual pastime—monster watching.

Each year this 31-year-old documentary film maker drives 530 miles from London to Loch Ness in northern Scotland to watch and wait and film a monster—if one should ever show itself.

"At one time I felt there was something in the loch but was not quite sure what," he said.

"Now after reading all the books and articles and speaking to several eyewitnesses I am prepared to stick my neck out and say that the animal in Loch Ness is as yet unclassified by zoology. It is that it has access to state long and that it probably resembles a plesiosaur (a prehistoric monster)."

Need has never seen a monster but he is hoping.

He is convinced that a really well-organized expedition could settle once and for all the mystery of the 24-mile long loch. But the difficulties even for a massive scientific expedition would be immense. At its deepest to bed without waiting for breakfast.

The Kiwanis Club rents the dance hall for a post-prom party in Laconia, N.H. and in Nashua, N.H. a bank sponsors an all-night rock 'n' roll session after the prom.

But, no matter where it is, Miami or Pretty Prairie, Kan., parents have the prom happen to them only once per child. For long-suffering school officials it comes every year, and sometimes that seems too often.

Rains Keep Pastures, Crops Good

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas crops and pastures are making good progress due to rains May 25-28, the state weekly weather and crop bulletin showed today.

But additional moisture is needed in parts of south Arkansas and in scattered areas elsewhere.

Cotton and rice planting is complete in many counties and nearing completion in all others. Soybean planting made little progress until late in the period because of wet fields. Apple, peach and vegetable crops are in satisfactory condition generally.

Limited cotton replanting will be necessary in fields planted before the rain. The crop is in fair to good condition. Plants are dying in some fields from seedling diseases and other causes, but the total acreage involved is not great. Chopping and cultivation is in full swing where field conditions permit.

About 90 percent of the corn acreage has been planted. Apple and peach prospects are good. Picking of early peaches is under way. The south Arkansas tomato crop is making excellent progress.

Pastures have improved considerably but are still not furnishing adequate feed for cattle in many counties. Most cattle are in good condition despite a shortage of pasture during most of the spring.

The weekly weather and crop bulletin is compiled by the Agriculture Department, University of Arkansas, Weather Bureau and Agricultural Extension Service.

COP Senators Discuss Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican senators discussed civil rights problems for two hours today in a closed party conference without reaching any decisions.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, chairman of the conference, told newsmen another meeting had been scheduled.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York, who requested the conference, had urged his GOP colleagues to "go down the line for civil rights legislation in this session of Congress."

But comments of senators emerging from the conference pointed up that the Republicans, like the Democrats, are divided.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona told newsmen he saw no need for additional civil rights measures, although he added this didn't necessarily mean he would oppose any bill that might be proposed.

The loch goes down more than 700 feet—deeper than the North Sea and the brackish black waters make diving and underwater camera work particularly difficult.

War Eagle River is only 34 miles long but it has an average fall of 40 feet per mile which makes it one of the fastest flowing rivers in the state.

LUCKY SEVEN—On the day astronaut Cooper's Faith 7 re-entered the atmosphere, a Mineral Ridge, Ohio, registered Holstein gave birth to her seventh calf. The calf, also called Faith 7, had a distinct 7 in white on her forehead.

Heavy Fights Raging in Tehran Street

By PARVIS AEIN

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Heavily armed police and troops battled Moslem mobs calling today for overthrow of the Shah. Hospital authorities said more than 20 persons were killed in the first hour of fighting. At least 1,000 persons were injured.

Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi and his queen were in the city, but authorities said they were heavily protected and in no danger. They said the mobs could not get near the royal palace. It was ringed by tanks and troops with machine guns.

The Shah is a Shiite—a member of the same Moslem sect which was rioting to protest the ruler's programs for land reform and emancipation of women.

Rioters set fire to a bus, police and army jeeps and smashed windows. Machine gun fire was heard throughout Tehran, including areas no more than two blocks from the palace.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said rioters smashed their way into the Iranian-American students' center, across from Tehran University, wrecked furniture and damaged the library.

Premier Assadullah Alam held an emergency meeting with his top aides at police headquarters to plan means of controlling the situation during the coming night.

The so-called harmony meeting was called by the County Board of Supervisors.

Taylor said he accepted the invitation on behalf of 100 representatives of organizations concerned with racial discrimination and civil rights in Los Angeles.

Another representative of the group, Julian Heicklen of the Congress of Racial Equality, said a demonstration is planned Sunday at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in nearby Beverly Hills where President Kennedy will be staying during his visit to Southern California.

The NAACP said it would not participate in the demonstration. The 1960 census counted 335,000 Negroes among Los Angeles' 2.5 million population.

Disagrees on Way to Free the World

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and British historian Arnold J. Toynbee disagreed today on whether science and technology could free the world from hunger and want.

In speeches prepared for the World Food Congress, Freeman said the world was at the door of abundance because of agricultural advances, but Toynbee declared science and technology could not do the job without worldwide birth control.

The congress, attended by some 1,200 delegates from more than 100 countries, moved into its second session to encourage the world's political, economic, social, religious, and educational leaders to make a broad international attack on hunger. The congress, which will meet through June 18, is sponsored by the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization.

Stressing the need for action, Freeman said it is doubtful whether "the community of nations inhabiting this earth can long exist half hungry and half well-fed."

"Science and technology have now—in this generation—opened the door to a potential for abundance for all," he said.

Toynbee, while praising science and technology, questioned their ability to increase food supplies indefinitely without aid of population controls.

"In the long run the campaign cannot be won unless the planet's millions of wives and husbands voluntarily decide to regulate the number of human births," he said.

"We have been godlike in our planned breeding of our domesticated plants and animals, but we have been rabbitlike in our unplanned breeding of ourselves," the historian said.

California Having Race Trouble

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Negro and white integrationists say they will resort to Birmingham-type demonstrations in Los Angeles if a conference with government and business leaders Thursday fails to bring about firm steps toward total integration.

Dr. Christopher Taylor, president of the Los Angeles branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told a news conference Tuesday that "demands and deadlines" would be presented at the conference.

The so-called harmony meeting was called by the County Board of Supervisors.

Taylor said he accepted the invitation on behalf of 100 representatives of organizations concerned with racial discrimination and civil rights in Los Angeles.

Another representative of the group, Julian Heicklen of the Congress of Racial Equality, said a demonstration is planned Sunday at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in nearby Beverly Hills where President Kennedy will be staying during his visit to Southern California.

The NAACP said it would not participate in the demonstration. The 1960 census counted 335,000 Negroes among Los Angeles' 2.5 million population.

The Minute Drama Is Developing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most fascinating developments of television is the minute—or even 30-second—drama.

They've been around for years, but these wildly abbreviated little dramas are becoming more popular than ever in the commercial areas these days.

There's the worried bride whose husband is unhappy about her cooking—until her mother-in-law tips her off about the right cooking oil.

There's the cigarette girl who gets her man—or at least an engagement ring—by selling the lonely night club patron the right brand of cigars.

There's the neglected wife whose husband never takes her dancing, or brings her flowers, until she dyes away those dreadful gray hairs. Then, wow!—it's nothing but the supper clubs and the bossa nova.

These speedy little dramas—complete with conflict and happy endings—are commercials of the Madison Avenue genius called "slice-of-life." Other categories include "demonstration"—which simply show how the product works—and "testimonial," in which somebody stands up and informs us how his headache was cured, his health improved or how white was her wash.

At the moment, "slice-of-life" is vying with candid camera type "testimonial" commercials for top popularity. A possible sleeper is

Emerson Dividend

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A quarterly 20-cent dividend on common stock the "magic" commercials—the giant fist smashing out of a washing machine, the tornado whirling over a bottle of cleaning liquid.

was declared Tuesday by directors of the Emerson Electric Co. The dividend is payable June 20 to holders of record on June 14, a company spokesman said.

Emerson operates a plant at Paragould, Ark.

Eligible for Civil Service

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The attorney general's office ruled today that employees hired by city commissions created by city councils are eligible for Civil Service status if the city chooses to include them in the system.

The opinion went to North Little Rock City Atty. Reed W. Thompson. It covered such city bodies as water, sewer, planning and parks commissions created by the council.

Another opinion said there is no state law prescribing or limiting the number of wards in a second-class city. The opinion went to Oscar Fendler of Blytheville, attorney for the incorporated town of Wilson.

Fendler said Wilson may change to a second class city.

Another opinion said that a woman who married a former policeman after his retirement is entitled to a pension under state law. The opinion went to Texarkana City Atty. Willis Smith Jr.

Typhoid Case At Searcy

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Health Department announced today that a case of typhoid fever has been reported from a Searcy hospital, bringing the state's total of such cases to 14 for the year.

At this time last year, only seven cases of typhoid had been reported.

Two cases were reported in Arkansas County last week and since then a third member of the same family had been reported as a typhoid patient. Another case was reported the week before in Poinsett County.
